WHO WE ARE

At the University of Zurich we offer unique advanced study programs that provide deep insights about Asian and European markets.

The Master of Advanced Studies in European and Asian Business Management MAS EABM, prepare students for the next stage of their professional career.

Our courses are the result of well-defined needs of our students and raising the importance of Asian and European markets in a globalized world.

OUR STUDENTS

- hold a university degree
(minimum Bachelor's degree).
- have previous work experience.
- are internationally-minded.
- speak English fluently
(most of them speak one Asian language and some German, French or Italian).
- are eager to learn and start their next career challenge between March - June 2026 for a period of 6-8 months.

THE PROPOSITION

Hire one or several of our motivated master candidates with the knowledge of cross-border business management in a European and Asian context and with strong intercultural competences.

The internship is a mandatory part of the MAS study program and should last 6-8 months.

Swiss internship work permits (Pflichtpraktikum) are guaranteed during the assigned period.

MAKE A STRATEGIC DECISION FOR YOUR BUSINESS!

Are you looking for opportunities for your business to grow? No matter if you need a helping hand, a new idea or an in-depth research to estimate your chances in succeeding in different markets, we can help you by providing a pool of talents with backgrounds in business, IT, engineering, marketing, finance and more.

INTERNSHIPS

If you are looking for an intern who is a young professional, skilled researcher, internationally-minded and speaks English fluently, then our students are the ideal candidates for your internship position. Most of our students speak additionally an Asian language and some are also fluent in German, French or Italian.
